

Generated Interview Questions

1. Here are 5 interview questions based on the provided details, designed to be relevant to the candidate's expertise and potential job roles, considering their SE Tech Manager experience:

3. 1. Considering your experience with both C and Python, can you describe a situation where you would choose one over the other for a project, and why?

4. 2. With your background in web technologies like HTML, CSS, and Django, how would you approach architecting a scalable web application? What factors would you consider in database selection and front-end framework choices?

5. 3. You've listed experience with Google AI Studio and Botpress. Can you describe a project where you utilized one of these platforms, and discuss the challenges and benefits you encountered compared to traditional coding approaches?

6. 4. As a Tech Manager, you've likely overseen projects involving databases. Describe your experience with MySQL and how you've ensured data integrity and efficient database performance in your previous roles.

7. 5. Looking at your projects like TeamDivider, CollegeConnect, and College Finder, can you elaborate on a specific technical challenge you faced in one of these projects and how you leveraged your skills in languages or technologies from your skillset to overcome it?